

Three years ago a tragedy happened that changed many lives. Today we still wonder when this case will be solved. If I could have one wish, I'd wish back to December 27th to change what happened. Although things happen for a reason, what was this reason? No matter what Paula will always be in our hearts, and an angel watching over for all the days to come.